John Abraham

"All I know is that I know nothing."
Socrates

Madeleine Anthony

"...I was born into this life which leads to death—or should I say, this death which leads to life?" Augustine

Gloria Alves

"As room without books is as a body without a soul." Cicero

Andrew Ashburn

"The only true wisdom is in knowing you know nothing." Socrates

Allyson Anderson

"The heart has its reasons, of which reason knows nothing." Blaise Pascal

Joan Babecka

"Good and ill have not changed since yesteryear; nor are they one thing among Elves and Dwarves and another among Men. It is a man's part to discern them, as much in the Golden Wood as in his own house." J.R.R. Tolkien

Katelyn Anderson

"No man or woman, coward or brave, can shun his destiny." Homer

Eva Brents

"Every art and every inquiry, and similarly every action and pursuit, is thought to aim at some good." Aristotle

Francesca Carney

"True knowledge exists in knowing that you know nothing." - Socrates

Maxine Cox

"Outward things cannot touch the soul, not in the least degree; nor have they admission to the soul, nor can they turn or move the soul; but the soul turns and moves itself alone." Marcus Aurelius

Sophie Cash

"If you are who you should be you will set the world ablaze." St. Catherine of Siena

Alyssa Cunningham

"As each one has received a gift, use it to serve one another as good stewards of God's varied grace." 1 Peter 4:10

John Mark Cayer

"Roman, remember by your strength to rule Earth's peoples- for your arts are to be these: To pacify, to impose the rule of law, to spare the conquered, battle down the proud." Virgil

Johnathan Cunningham

"Conversion is a matter of a moment. Sanctification is the work of a lifetime"- The Way by Josemaria Escriva

Robert Chappell

"From my great-grandfather [I learned] not to have frequented public schools, and to have good teachers at home, and to know that on such things a man should spend liberally." Marcus Aurelius

Galahad Carmack

"For a man to conquer himself is the first and noblest of all victories." Plato

Damian Damato

"Finally, from so little sleeping and so much reading, his brain dried up and he went completely out of his mind." Cervantes

Veronica Felipe

"We are what we repeatedly do. Excellence, then, is not an act, but a habit." Aristotle

Ciely Daly

"If more of us valued food and cheer and song above hoarded gold, it would be a merrier world." J.R.R. Tolkien

Micah Glass

"Anybody remotely interesting is mad in some way or another."

Dr. Who

Niall Devlin

"Rage - Goddess, sing the rage of Pelius' son Achilles, murderous, doomed, that cost the Achaeans countless losses, hurling down to the House of Death so many sturdy soles, great fighters soles, but made their bodies carrion, feast for the dogs and birds, and the will of Zeus was moving toward its end. Begin, Muse, when the two first broke and clashed, Agamemnon lord of men and brilliant Achilles." Homer

Mark Francis

"Through me the way is to the city dolent; Through me the way is to eternal dole; Through me the way among the people lost. Justice incited my sublime Creator; Created me divine Omnipotence, The highest Wisdom and the primal Love. Before me there were no created things, Only eterne, and I eternal last. All hope abandon, ye who enter in!" Dante

Robert Gleason

"Happiness is an activity of soul in accordance with perfect virtue..." Aristotle

Evelina Henderson

"Until I know this sure uncertainty, I'll entertain the offered fallacy."
Shakespeare

John Gleason

"[T]he mightiest power of all is wielded by that Love whose just and temperate consummation, whether in heaven or on earth, tends toward the good." Plato

Cecilia Huckins

"Nothing is miserable unless you think it so; and on the other hand, nothing brings happiness unless you are content with it." Boethius

Aubrey Gulick

"The difficulty is not to avoid death, but to avoid unrighteousness, for that runs faster than death." Plato

Mary Huffman

"The future starts today, not tomorrow."
St. John Paul II

Marshall Harmon

"I will give your mind wings on which to lift itself; all disquiet shall be driven away and you will be able to return safely to your homeland. I will be your guide, your path and your conveyance." Boethius

Anna Kapp

"Love in action is a harsh and dreadful thing compared to love in dreams." Dostoevsky

Erin Kee

"I am not afraid of the danger; if it means death, It will not be the worst of deaths—death without honor." Antigone

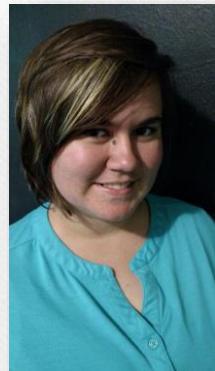

Catherine Kniaz

"You cannot impose anything on a free mind, and you cannot move from its state of inner tranquility a mind at peace with itself and firmly founded on reason." Boethius

Keelin Kelley

"On the day of judgement, surely, we shall not be asked what we have read but what we have done; not how well we have spoken but how well we have lived." Thomas a Kempis

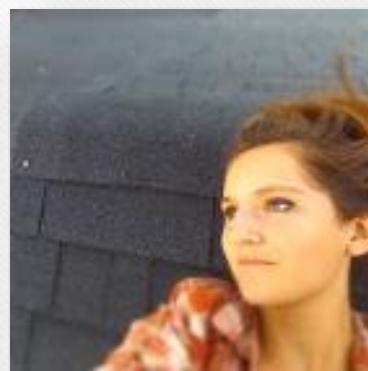

Karra Koch

"Everyone is a moon and has a dark side which he never shows to anybody." Mark Twain

Jonathan Kenney

"Hope, danger's comforter, may be indulged in by those who have abundant resources, if not without loss, at all events without ruin." The Melian Dialogue

Sophie Kozinski

"I cannot teach anybody anything, I can only make them think." Socrates

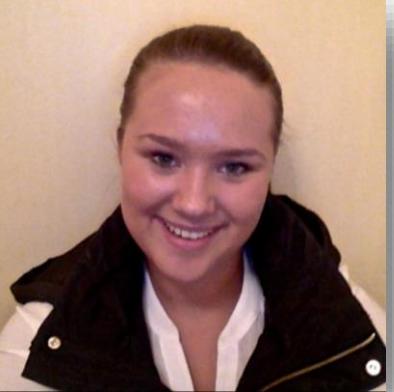

Kezia Kirchner

"There is no greatness where there is not simplicity, goodness, and truth." Tolstoy

Anatolia Kozinski (right)

"End? No, the journey doesn't end here. Death is just another path, one which we all must take. The grey rain curtain of this world rolls back, and all turns to silver glass. And then you see it: white shores, and beyond, a far green country, under a swift sunrise." J.R.R. Tolkien

Lucy von Marburg

"Either write something worth reading, or do something worth writing."

Benjamin Franklin

Francesca McGinnity

"When life itself seems lunatic, who knows where madness lies? Perhaps to be too practical is madness. To surrender dreams — this may be madness. Too much sanity may be madness — and maddest of all: to see life as it is, and not as it should be!" Cervantes

Ethan Marsh

"Depart [from this life] then satisfied, for the one who releases thee is satisfied." Marcus Aurelius,

"Those who tell the stories rule society." Plato

Leo Ware

"I tremble for my country when I reflect that God is just." Thomas Jefferson

Faustina Whittaker

"The roots of Education are bitter but the fruit is sweet." Aristotle

Brandon Wainscott

"Fathers and teachers, I ponder, "What is hell?" I maintain that it is the suffering of being unable to love...they talk of hell fire in the material sense. I don't go into that mystery and I shun it. But I think if there were fire in material sense, they would be glad of it, for I imagine that in material agony, their still greater spiritual agony would be forgotten for a moment. Moreover, that spiritual agony cannot be taken from them, for that suffering is not external but within them."

Dostoevsky

Amanda Watson

"The bag wants flour."
Samians to the Spartans

Matthew Zimmerman

"The gods living in bliss are fond of no wrongdoing, but honor discipline and right behavior." Homer
